

Contents

Introduction (Hanna Krauze-Sikorska and Michał Klichowski)	9
--	---

Part I: Discourses of Communication

Educational interactions at school in the light of Habermas's communicational action concept (Mariola Gańko-Karwowska)	15
Social fear and selective mutism as communication disorders in middle and late childhood: Seeking common denominators (Kinga Kuszak)	27
Questions in the process of constructing pupils' knowledge (Jolanta Bonar)	40
The explanation of emotional phenomena among pre-school age children (Barbara Górecka-Mostowicz)	48
Diagnostic values of selected sheets for assessing school readiness (in preparation to take up learning to read and write) (Barbara Kurowska)	60
A children's book as a source of social world cognition (Dorota Radzikowska)	69
Basal readers as a tool in fostering early school children's cultural identity (Ewa Żmijewska)	77
Best-selling children's books as (re)constructions of a social world (Eva Zamojska)	93
The evolution of foreign language didactics in the context of children's developmental dynamics (Małgorzata Moszyk)	105
Philosophizing as a means of gaining communication competences by pupils of early education (Anna Buła)	115
Common core standards: A new beginning for education in the United States (Melinda R. Pierson)	125
The educator and teacher's role in supporting a student experiencing a hardship (Justyna Deręgowska)	133
Teacher's education, adventure and creativity (Małgorzata Kabat)	145
The gap between the student's assessment and the teacher's assessment of the student's work (Orli Noriany)	157

A two-year-old child as a participant of nursery school life (Anna Mikler-Chwastek)	170
Learning by children in the embodied-embedded mind concept (Renata Michalak)	179
Art in the world of a child (Kinga Łapot-Dzierwa)	202
Applying elements of Dalcroze's method in the process of stimulating the development of the contemporary pre-schooler (Katarzyna Sadowska)	213
The world of the theatre as a student's learning space (Lucyna Maksymowicz)	227
Contemporary young Lemkos – the question of identity (Beata A. Orłowska)	239

Part II: Discourses of Subjectivity

Listening to children's voices, or on the paradigm shift in childhood studies (Małgorzata Kowalik-Olubińska)	251
The child as a subject in the family. Confrontation of theory with practice (Katarzyna Segiet)	260
The implementation of the Family Life Education curriculum subject in the primary schools in the context of children with mild intellectual disability (Marzena Buchnat, Dariusz Skowroński and Katarzyna Waszyńska)	272
Parent-children relationships as a subject of parents' pedagogization (Patrycja Wesołowska)	287
Child-family-peer relations in the most recent Polish prose for children, in an educational context (Anna Józefowicz)	294
Mental violence in the family and child's functioning in their age group. The need for preventive measures and assistance (Aneta Baranowska)	307
A child as a person: Child's quality of life in the world of (un)perfect parents (Hanna Krauze-Sikorska)	317
Children having children. A phenomenon of a premature parenthood – conditions and family implications (Agnieszka Skowrońska-Pućka)	330
Existential dilemmas of parents of impaired children (Hanna Kubiak)	340
The application of peer tutoring in the education of intellectually impaired children (Andrzej Twardowski)	350
A deaf child, which means... who? On imprecision in the definition of deafness (Anna Wiśniewska)	367
The meaning of sex education in the development of children and youth with autism spectrum (Anna Gulczyńska and Aneta Wojciechowska)	374
Simple obesity in children in the context of their dependence on the field of nutrition (Małgorzata Cichecka-Wilk)	385
Determinants of cultural development in early childhood education (Michalina Kasprzak)	397
Peer contact and the level of state of being of a six-year-old child (Izabela Kujawska)	406

“Being lost” in a selection of illusion. A child in “an encounter” with others (Julita Orzelska)	415
How could Aladdin start a new life without a magic lamp? The functioning of orphanages for street children in India (Beata Pietkiewicz-Pareek)	425

Part III: Discourses of Cyborgization

Transhumanism and the idea of education in the world of cyborgs (Michał Klichowski)	443
Cyber-regular in real life, or schizophrenic dichotomy (Klaudia Sowińska)	451
Teen bloggers successful in show business and the identity of the young generation (Edyta Drzymała)	465
Media activity and the identity of adolescents in the society of consumption (Mateusz Marciniak)	474
“THERAPEE” – behavioral cyber therapy for enuresis (bedwetting) (Tal Sagie)	491
Children at-risk: Treating cyberbullying with psychodrama (Zivit Vaxberg)	503
A child in the face of Internet addiction in the family (Dominika Przybyszewska)	520
Social-media contexts of a child’s musical environment (Joanna Szczyrba)	536
E-documentation and e-communication in primary schools as seen by teachers who use electronic grade books (Anna Michniuk)	549
What do we need heroes for? The importance of fairy tale movies and fantasy movies in a child’s life (Marta Gliniecka)	557