

CONTENTS

Introduction	7
Part I: Historical and theoretical aspects of fencing
A review of selected 21st-century Polish studies on competitive fencing	11
(Maciej Łuczak)
Symmetrisation training in fencing research	25
(Piotr Ogarzyński, Mateusz Witkowski)
Part II: Psychology in fencing
Achievement motivation in reference to goal orientation in fencing	37
(Maciej Tomczak, Małgorzata Walczak)
Part III: Body build and motor training in fencing
Body build and body composition of fencing competitors	47
(Magdalena Krzykała, Urszula Czerniak, Anna Demuth, Dariusz Wielński, Krzysztof Karpowicz, Małgorzata Karpowicz, Jarosław Janowski)
Motor learning and teaching: A system-theoretical approach	61
(Wacław Petryński, Daniel Pawłowski, Tomasz Sierszchuła, Mirosław Szyndera)
The structure of physical fitness among young fencers (trend change 2006-2013). .	75
(Krzysztof Karpowicz, Jarosław Janowski, Małgorzata Karpowicz, Ryszard Strzelczyk, Urszula Czerniak, Anna Demuth, Magdalena Krzykała)
Importance of motor abilities in fencing	89
(Mateusz Witkowski, Michał Bronikowski, Andrzej Rokita, Marek Popowczak, Ireneusz Cichy)

Speed-related determinants of specialist skills in young female foil fencers	101
(Mateusz Witkowski, Piotr Ogarzyński)
Characteristic of Functional Asymmetry in Fencers Measured with Optojump Next System	113
(Anna Szczygiół, Marcin Kantor, Kajetan Słomka)	