

Contents

Introduction	7
The life and the work of Professor Edward Jeliński	13
Bibliography of Professor Edward Jeliński	17
 I. THE CONCEPT OF THE STATE IN THE EUROPEAN THOUGHT
JAN SUCH, IWONA SUGALSKA
The State and the Law as the demand of the rationality of the public life	27
AGNIESZKA BIELAWSKA
Polis in the ancient Greek literature and philosophy	39
 II. CULTURAL BORDERLANDS OF EUROPE
BOGDAN KOSZEL
Merkel-Sarkozy. About the "political chemistry" between Germany and France	69
ALEKSANDER KOŚKO
The Dnieper River and the cultural borderland of the West and the East of Europe: prehistorical reflection	79
WITOLD MAZURCZAK
British socialists and the colonialism. The case of Arthur Creech-Jones	87
MAREK JEDLIŃSKI
Pro-Catholic, pro-Polish voice from tsarist Russia? The reflections of Vladimir Solovyov on the Polish national identity and Poles	103
MARIA MAGDALENA KOŚKO
In the circle of Poznan studies on the mythologisation of Northeastern Eurasia	119
 III. THE FACES OF POLISH POLITICAL AND ETHICAL CULTURE
JACEK SOBCZAK
The vision of the future of Wincenty Lutosławski	129
PRZEMYSŁAW HAUSER
For the place of Poland in Europe after the World War I. Visions – attempts of the realization – result	167

HENRYK LISIAK

- From the idea to the action. Ignacy Jan Paderewski visions of independent Poland and the efforts taken in order to realize these visions* 193

JAN GRAD

- Religious custom of the period of "realistic socialism" and social transformations in Poland* 213

BARTOSZ HORDECKI

- About the state of the political debate in Poland* 231

MICHAŁ MUSIELAK

- Philosophy of medicine in Poznan in the interwar period – representatives, views, actions* 251