

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	9
---------------------------	----------

PART I. LEGAL CHANGES

OLENA KHARYTONOVA

Modernising Criminal Justice – Vectors and Changes in New Zealand	15
Introduction	15
1. Maori Overrepresentation in Criminal Justice of New Zealand and Its Neo-colonial Discourse	16
2. Justice Practices of Aborigines and Restorative Justice	20
3. Gender Discourse and Countering Gender-Based Violence	25
Conclusions	31

VALENTINA EMIKH

Social and economics rights in New Zealand: the link between domestic and international law	33
Introduction	33
1. The problem of implementation of the UDHR in the New Zealand legal system and legal frameworks of the social and economic rights in New Zealand	33
2. In searching the courts and Parliament collaboration in the sphere of social and economic rights in New Zealand	36
3. Conception of progressive realization of social and economic rights in New Zealand	39
4. Social and economic rights oriented policy in New Zealand	40
Conclusions	41

PART II. SOCIO-ECONOMICS CHANGES

MIECZYŚLAW SPRENGEL

Outline of economic changes in New Zealand in the context of relations with Australia	45
Introduction	45
1. The structure of trade	46
2. The actions of the governments of New Zealand	50

3. Economic integration of Australia and New Zealand	53
Conclusions	58
ALICJA MIKOŁAJEWICZ-WOŹNIAK
Functioning of the cryptocurrency market in New Zealand	59
Introduction	59
1. Cryptocurrencies as decentralized accounting systems	60
2. Evolving legal status of cryptocurrencies	62
3. Limited access to cryptocurrencies in New Zealand	67
4. New Zealand's engagement in the blockchain technology development	71
Conclusions	74
DARIUSZ ZDZIECH
Population and labour resources in New Zealand. (Transformation and demographic perspectives, changes in the age structure, manpower resources and the labour market)	77
Introduction	77
1. Transformation – Population	78
2. Changes in the age structure	83
3. Labour market	85
4. Resources	87
5. Demographic perspectives	89
Conclusions	91
JOANNA SIEKIERA
New Zealand's Public Policy in the South Pacific	93
1. Public Policy as a distinct academic discipline	93
2. Public Policy of the South Pacific microstates	98
3. New Zealand's role in regionalism	105
Conclusions	110
JUSTYNA ESKA-MIKOŁAJEWSKA
The role of New Zealand's national security and its importance in external relations	113
Introduction	113
1. Conditions of national security	114
2. National security objectives versus existing and potential threats	118
3. The New Zealand National Security System: organization and principles of operation	123
4. National security in terms of New Zealand's external relations	126
Conclusions	131
KAROLINA KANIA
The tourist boom in the land of Middle-earth – the development of tourism	135
Introduction	135
1. The development of the tourism industry in New Zealand over the last decades	136

2. Characteristics of the New Zealand tourist market	140
3. The formation and development of institutions involved in the development of tourism in New Zealand	143
4. Māori cultural tourism	144
5. New Zealand film tourism	146
Conclusions	148
Bibliography	151
I. Literature	151
II. Documents	159
III. Internet sources	161
IV. Others:	170
Notes about the authors	173